Spring Black Bear 2011

Howdy All. This past winter was a long and cold one with a lot of snow. So, when we came to open the Lodge this spring, we had a bit of ice breaking to do.

Docks got pushed around by the ice but the Lodge was fine, we moved in and got ready for the season.

Omineca Lodge

This season, as usual, we've got a stellar Crew, Veteran Guides: Geoff & Wes. New Guide: Mike.

Fernando Jr's
Golden Bear

May 2011

Fernando from Monterey, Mexico has made a tradition of bringing the next generation of his family and friends for a Spring Bear Hunts in Omineca. 2011 was the third season that Fernando has organized a group. And boy, did we have fun.

ON THE HUNT

During Fernando's Hunt we saw over 80 Bears. I lost count exactly. We sighted and stalked Black Bear of every size and colour-phase, including one of our "Golden Bears". That's our nickname for a Black Bear with a very blond/golden colouring. We see them quite often. See Fernando Jr's Bear on Page 1.

Fernando's group killed five Bears, Four were Big Boars over six and a half feet. We'll let you how many of them make the record books.

It's great when you have a guide who is also a professional photographer. Geoff guided and took the famous pic of Fernando's 2007 Seven Footer and most of the photos in this story. He's available for Location Shoots, Moose Hunts and Bar Mitzvah's.

With this 2011 Omineca Hunt, Fernando has hunted Black Bear with all three of his sons and taken three Bear himself.

After a successful hunt, you gotta have a camp-fire party. And we did, every night. After Jill's finger-lickin' good dinners, the tequila, cigars, tall tales and Northern Lights all came out.

Guillermo's Bear / 7' 3"

In celebration, Rene and Guillermo decided to go for a dip in the lake. They knew that the ice had only been off the lake for 10 days. But they're stout fellows and it was warm, beautiful day. The boys took the leap but they sure didn't linger.

The time with Fernando and crew went by way too quickly but we're already planning future hunts.
